INTROIT

I am the Vine, ye are the Branches
Philip James

I am the vine, ye are the branches. They that do with me abide, theirs shall be the glorious fruitage, theirs the blessings that betide.

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Com to worship God whose love was revealed in Jesus.
Let all the ends of the earth turn to our God.

We will worship the Almighty and sing praises.
We will proclaim good news to others.
Beloved, we are called to love as God loves us.
We are to love one another as sisters and brothers.

Everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.
We seek to let God's love be perfected in us.
Remember that you have been baptized.
God claims you and has high expectations of you.

Christ is the vine; we are the branches.
We will bear fruit when we abide in the vine.

* INVOCATION PRAYER

Let us pray together:

Open our senses to your direction, amazing God, so we may be alert to opportunities you give us.
Fill us with good news to share with those who seek meaning for their lives. We are here because we need good news ourselves.
There is much in life that we do not understand.
We seek to know your Word and to be led by it.
Recall us to the vows of our baptism, reconfirming in us the covenant promises that link us to you and to one another.
As we meet you here, our hearts are lifted up in praise.
May our worship glorify your name and be pleasing to you.
Amen.

* HYMN #485

We Know That Christ Is Raised
ENGELBERG

Capo 3: (D)

1 We know that Christ is raised and dies no more.
2 We share by water in his saving death.
3 The Father's splendor clothes the Son with life.
4 A new creation comes to life and grows

2 Hearing loop installed. Switch hearing aid to T-coil
Let us join our voices in the corporate prayer of confession, followed by time for silent personal confession. Thus, we pray together:

Guitar chords do not correspond with keyboard harmony.

Beginning with an allusion to Romans 6:9, this exuberant baptismal hymn unfolds the implications of our incorporation into Christ’s new life, making us “a new creation” (2 Corinthians 5:17). The text was written to fit this expansive tune by a distinguished British composer.

* CALL TO CONFESSION

Sense the love of God that seeks to live in us. Remember the times you have felt connected to the true vine, Jesus Christ. Listen again to the promise and challenge: If you abide in me and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you want, and it will be done for you... bear much fruit and thus prove to be my disciples. Let us join our voices in the corporate prayer of confession, followed by time for silent personal confession. Thus, we pray together:

Bram Chisholm
* PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God, we have ignored our origin in you and denied your rule over the nations. We have pursued illusions of self-interest rather than abiding in your love. We have turned away from brothers and sisters as if they were enemies to be hated. We are afraid to love those who differ from us or who have the power to harm us. We hesitate to take the risks of caring for fear that we may be hurt. Discipleship seems too demanding.

O God, release us from our fears and failures to trust your love and live with bold generosity.

(moment of silent confession)

* KYRIE ELEISON
John Merbecke

Lord, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us.

* ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

There is good news for all who sincerely repent and seek a living, growing relationship with God. Those who are open to the gift of God's love are blessed with the capacity to extend love to others and thus experience the depth and riches of life that God intends for us. When we love one another, God's love is perfected in us.

Alleluia and Amen!

* PASSING OF THE PEACE

May the peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

Let us offer a sign of peace to one another.

* GLORIA #581
Glory Be to the Father

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.
OFFERTORY INVITATION
Please be seated.
God loves us so much that Jesus was sent to be the atoning sacrifice for our sin.
The balm of love was offered for our healing
so we might be reconciled to God and one another.
What will we offer in thanksgiving for so great a gift?
The offering will now be received.

OFFERING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Jubilate Deo (Psalm 100) Dale Wood

O sing to the Lord with a jubilant voice; Glory to God in the highest!
O serve him with gladness, before him rejoice; Praise to the Lord in the highest.
The Lord is our God, our Creator, not we; Glory to God in the highest!
The sheep of his pasture we ever shall be; Praise to the Lord in the highest!
O enter his gates with thanksgiving and praise; Glory to God in the highest!
To honor his Name thankful voices we raise; Praise to the Lord in the highest!
For good is the Lord, and his mercy is sure; Glory to God in the highest!
To all generations his truth shall endure; Glory to God! Praise to the Lord in the highest!

* DOXOLOGY #607

OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise Christ, all people here below;
praise Holy Spirit evermore; praise Triune God, whom we adore. Amen.

* OFFERTORY PRAYER

Bram Chisholm

Let us join our voices in prayer:

We give, gracious God, because we are grateful.
Your love has sustained us through many trials and temptations.
We are thankful for those who have guided our attempts to understand the scriptures.
Your loving judgement has provided the pruning our lives require in order to bear fruit.
We give in order to extend to others the blessings we have received and to continue the ministry we need as we seek to abide together in your love.
Amen.

* OFFERTORY RESPONSE

All Things Come of Thee Herbert C. Peabody

All things come of Thee, O Lord, and of Thine own have we given Thee. Amen
WE LISTEN FOR GOD’S WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Come, Holy Spirit,
that through your word we may be guided into the love of God for all the world.
Amen.

THE READINGS

First Reading Acts 8:26-40 (NRSVUE)

Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, “Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.” (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, the queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, “Go over to this chariot and join it.” So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?” He replied, “How can I, unless someone guides me?” And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this:

“Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer,
so he does not open his mouth.
In his humiliation justice was denied him.
Who can describe his generation?
For his life is taken away from the earth.”

The eunuch asked Philip, “About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?” Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?” He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

The Holy Spirit has a word for each of us today.

With God’s help we are listening.
Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God’s love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.

Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us. Those who say, “I love God,” and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

The Holy Spirit has a word for each of us today.

With God’s help we are listening.

Gospel

John 15:1-5 (NRSVUE)

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PASTOR’S MESSAGE

“Why Not Me?”

Pastor Denise Clark-Jones
THE APOSTLES’ CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Amen.

LIGHTING OF CANDLES, PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD’S PRAYER

We ask all these things in the name of Jesus who taught us to pray...

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
Refrain

Capo 3: (D) (A7)

(Em) (A7) (D)

F Dm Gm C

Fine

Jesu, Jesu, fill us with your love; show us how to serve the neighbors we have from you.

1 Kneels at the feet of his friends, silently washes their feet, Master who acts as a slave to them.
2 Neighbors are wealthy and poor, varied in color and race; neighbors are near us and far away.
3 These are the ones we should serve; these are the ones we should love; all these are neighbors to us and you.
4 Loving puts us on our knees, willing to wash others' feet; this is the way we should live like you.
* COMMISSION AND BLESSING

Live for God every moment of every day.
Take time to bow down in gratitude for God's love.

We seek to live as people who know God.
Because we are loved, we dare to love others.
Do not be afraid to witness to your growing faith.
Do not hesitate to show the fruits of abiding in Christ.

We will turn to the perfect love that casts out fear.
We will tell of that love to future generations.
You have been equipped and empowered by love.
God is filling your life with purpose and energy.

We love because God first loved us.
We go out to serve as apostles of Jesus Christ.

Our time in this place may have ended,
but our connection to each other and this community remains.
Together may we walk the path of justice, speak words of love,
live the selfless deed, trod gently upon the earth,
and fill the world with compassion.
And may the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be upon you, and remain with you forever.

Amen.
